

Cinematic Mountains

This summer, cinema moves to the mountains with Cervino Cinemountain and the Gran Paradiso Film Festival. Carefully selected films to be enjoyed amid breathtaking natural landscapes, complemented by book presentations, special events, and talks that enrich the experience. A unique opportunity that goes far beyond the traditional movie screening.

Discover Events

Cervino Cinemountain Festival

Europe's highest-altitude international mountain film festival returns this summer with a packed program of unmissable events. Montura takes center stage with special happenings, including film screenings, book presentations, and meet-and-greets with Ambassadors like Fausto De Stefani, Hervé Barmasse, Edu Marín, and many more.

Know More

Gran Paradiso Film Festival

The Gran Paradiso Film Festival celebrates nature through films that tell stories of mountains, silence, and people. Montura supports two special projects and a sound walk in Gran Paradiso National Park with the crew of the film Silenzi in Quota, inviting you to experience the mountains by also listening to their voice.

Know More

Men

Women

Kids

Montura Stores

Store Locator

f